

Michael J. Flory

April 1997 to Present

Deputy District Attorney
County of Orange

My duties in Orange County have varied from felony filings to preliminary hearings and felony trials. I have tried seventy four jury trials to date. The jury trials I have tried have ranged from simple drug possession to attempted murder. I was in the major narcotics unit for several years and was awarded the Orange County Narcotics Prosecutor of the year in 2003. I also voluntarily give training to various police departments throughout the county in subjects ranging from trial testimony to search and seizure law.

March 1994 to April 1997

Deputy District Attorney
County of Ventura

While in Ventura County District Attorney's office, I tried 42 jury trials, including four felonies. The type of cases I handled in Ventura varied from DUI's to life cases. Additionally, I instructed at the Ventura County Sheriff's academy teaching cadets how to improve narcotics arrests.

Credentials:

Member of the State Bar of California. Admitted June, 1993.

Education

Western State University of Law

Fullerton, California

Juris Doctor, Cum Laude. Graduated, December 1992.

Honor/Activities

Law Review 1992; Class Ranking 16th; Honor Roll: 1990, 1991 and 1992.

American Jurisprudence Awards: Community Property, U.C.C..

California State University, Fullerton

Fullerton, California

Bachelor of Arts, Marketing, 1989.